66/10/12 Feedback on action points

- × Land Registry-no feedback as yet-Chairman absent
- × Weed clearance-due to start on 15th October.
- × Signage-clerk reported that there was no further news to report.
- × Cork backing-no action as yet
- × Response from Call Connect-clerk informed meeting of suggestion which had been received. Basically CC would provide some service if there were sufficient numbers.
- × LCC –response regarding planning discussed. The Clerk asked to contact and ask for response regarding the changes which had been carried out.
- × Speeding- Cllr A Johnson reported that a preliminary trial had not proven successful and so other methods needed to be trialled. Cllr A Johnson will approach Lincolnshire Police regarding speed guns.
- × Kingfisher Statue- this had been repainted by a parishioner

67/10/12 Financial Statement

Cllr M Head provided the Councillors with a financial summary. The balance of the current account was £3.899.42.

One invoice presented to Cllr Head by the Clerk from Clement Keys (Audit costs) £96.00 and Cllr Head had received an invoice for £93.52 from CM Joinery. These were proposed for payments by Cllr R Walley and seconded by Cllr A Johnson.

Cllr Head also reported that S137 payments at £986.52 were well within the limits set.

68/10/12 Annual Audit

Clerk reported that the audit had been returned and had been given a qualified audit opinion.

69/10/12 Insurance

None received.

70/10/12 Planning Applications

None received

71/10/12 Risk Management

Cllr Head asked what the position was regarding the provision of a playing field for the village. The Chairman explained that one of the sites was unsuitable due to the lack of a footpath. Cllr S Coy is going to enquire about the ownership of another piece of land which could prove to be more suitable.

56/09/12 Kingfisher Sculpture

A complaint has been received regarding the state of the sculpture. The Council discussed this and it was decided that the village tidy would repaint

57/09/12 Cluster meeting

The meeting will be at Billingham on 15th October. The clerk asked if South Kyme wanted any items placed on the agenda. The clerk was asked to email the following; speeding, footpath and signage

58/09/12 Maintenance of the Churchyard

The clerk asked if the Chairman had any feedback from the church regarding the Council's request for payment for the maintenance of the churchyard. No PCC meeting had taken place so hopefully a response should have been received by the October meeting.
